

JOHNSON MAKES FIRST SPEECH IN CAMPAIGN START

Declares for Bonus and Material Reduction in Taxes

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Senator Hiram Johnson in his first public address since announcing his candidacy for the Republican nomination for president tonight condemned the foreign policy at Washington which he said had been attempting to commit America to "undisclosed European adventures" ever since the armistice. It is the first duty of citizens to resist this policy, he said, in an address before the Cook county Republican Board.

Senator Johnson went on record, not only advocating the national bonus and also a definite reduction in taxes, but outlined his ideas of how these two things could be accomplished.

He also advocated a constitutional amendment that would make child labor laws and women's minimum wage laws legal; suggested remedies for farmers' troubles, and then launched into an attack on the administration policy toward the European situation and also against American joining the reparations conference.

"I do not protest against an American policy toward Europe," said Senator Johnson. "I protest against an American policy which does not know what it is and which seeks to discover itself, or to hide itself, by first going into a conference with Europe."

"If the administration at Washington is able to see in Europe an opportunity for American action, I ask it to say so, and definitely what that opportunity is and what that action should be. Its endeavor has been merely to put us into international organizations of which the ultimate action is unknown or at least, undeclared."

Discusses Bonus

In taking up the bonus and taxation questions Senator Johnson said:

"The responsible heads of the dominant political party have for some years pledged themselves and their party to the soldiers' adjusted compensation act. The passage of the act you assert to be financially bad, but our pretexts and delays, our shiftings and evasions are morally worse. But we can reduce taxes and we will I hope, reduce them."

Senator Johnson then read figures computed by the treasury department and the American Legion and said:

"If the computations be correct, we may do our duty by the soldiers and still reduce taxation."

Senator Johnson early in his address said that "what I say tonight is in no sense a political platform."

He also discussed the agricultural situation saying:

"When agriculture languishes the nation is ill. Some would have the American taxpayer generally make up to the farmer that which is unjustly taken from him. The initial step in the relief of the farmer is lower freight rates. I would not be unjust to the transportation companies but that they could reduce the rates upon farm products I have little doubt; and if the interstate commerce commission were to function with the clarity and certainty I desire, rates more in consonance with present conditions could be accorded."

Co-operative Marketing

Senator Johnson also advocated co-operative marketing and development of waterways as aids to the farmer.

In closing Senator Johnson reverted to the foreign situation.

"We hear talk of 'helping Europe,' he said. "The true problem is not alone of 'helpfulness,' it is that of justice. Our statesmen now in many cases attempt to persuade the farmer that what he needs is a league of nations at Geneva or world court at The Hague or some other preposterous and futile method of expanding his markets."

"The reparations conference proposal is a transparent subterfuge contrived by gentlemen who having tried and notoriously failed to get us into the politics of Europe directly thru the league of nations, now wish to get us thru the indirect road of pretending that a participation in European economic affairs in a conference called by governments and consisting of the appointees of governments would not take us into European governmental matters."

An alternative policy, he said was "our own, frankly and openly avowed, retaining our independence of action, uninfluenced by secret conferences in short an American policy."

REAL ESTATE SHARKS FLEECE FOREIGNERS WITH CLEVER SCHEME

Give Away Lots, Then Make Charge for Legal Expense

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Foreigners in the last few years have been swindled out of approximately $12,000,000 by a ring of real estate sharks selling undeveloped marsh lands within a fifty mile radius of New York, James G. Wilson, deputy assistant district attorney testified today before the joint legislative committee investigating immigrant exploitation.

Mr. Wilson said that the sharks would supply free tickets for inspection trips to a tract of land and would tell their guests that a lucky number would draw a lot. The lots, the witness continued, were worth about $10 each and covered by a blanket mortgage. Each guest won a lot, but was charged $49.50 to cover legal fees for transfer of property.

Mr. Wilson said the figure of $49.50 was set so as to keep within the petty larceny limit of $50.

The witness said the ring could be stopped by special legislation in New York and New Jersey exercising a closer supervision over property transfer.

Earlier in the day Miss Marion K. Clark, chief of the alien division of the state department of labor testified that aliens in mines and labor camps in this state were living under conditions that amounted almost to peonage. She stated that the victims were without legal protection because the state bureau of immigration, established in 1910, by the Hughes' committee had been wiped out by the legislature in 1921.

SCIENTIST DISCOVERS WONDERFUL FACTS IN THEORY OF HEREDITY

Says Supermen Can Be Developed by Future Generations

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The theory that a race of supermen can be developed thru the transmission from generation to generation of heredity if improved mental and physical characteristics acquired during the life time of each generation today was brought to America by Dr. Paul Kammerer biologist of the University of Vienna, who arrived on the Resolute.

The scientist claimed in support of his theory, that he had succeeded in teaching the offspring of land frogs to swim, developed eyes in blind newts and predetermined the color of salamanders.

He told a group of distinguished scientists who met him at the pier who have arranged an American tour for him that he had found tangible proof in animal experiments that characteristics acquired during the life time of an animal can be transmitted to heredity to his young.

"Shakespeare was only half right," Dr. Kammerer said. "Not only the evil but the good man does lives after him."

To illustrate his theory Dr. Kammerer declared that prohibition of alcoholic beverages in the United States if it would prevent the present or a future generation in this country from indulging its taste for such beverages, would produce a succeeding generation which would have no taste for the beverages.

WILL HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR HARDING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Formal action by congress in respect to the late President Harding who died while congress was in adjournment will not be taken on the opening day of the new session. Leaders decided to day to await the address of President Coolidge formally announcing the death of his predecessor before presenting any resolutions regarding Mr. Harding. Adjournments of both branches of congress on the opening day therefore will be taken out of respect to deceased senators and representatives and at a late day congress will adjourn out of respect to Mr. Harding and also hold a joint memorial service.

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 27.—George Ronna, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ronna of Buckley east of here was burned to death when their home was destroyed early this morning. Fire puffed from an overheated stove and ignited a can of kerosene. Officials declare two-thirds of the boy's flesh was burned off.

HUMPHREYS LEADING IN MISSISSIPPI RACE

Clarksdale, Miss., Nov. 27.—Returns from 17 of the eighteen precincts in Coahoma county show W. Y. Humphreys leading J. C. Roberts by a vote of nearly two to one in the special election held today to name a successor to the late Congressman Benjamin Grubb Humphreys of the third district.

CHILD DECLARES EUROPE PRAISES AMERICAN STAND

Says European Statesmen Advises Continued Aloofness

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(AP)—America's foreign policy is not that of isolation but of detached activity and its prestige in foreign chancelleries never was greater, Richard Washburn Child, ambassador to Italy declared in addressing the Italy-America Society tonight.

During his three years aboard thru his attendance at the two biggest international conferences—at Genoa and Lausanne—and since his return home Mr. Child said he had had opportunity to examine America's moral obligations and he found it to be "the moral obligation to be intelligent."

It is insulting to patriotism to say the United States is standing apart, he declared and "as for clarity of foreign policy" he added "be sure that members of international conferences and leagues know less about each other's plans and purposes than they know about plans and purposes of the United States."

Mr. Child declared Europe now recognizes "that our good sense, after a tragical lapse has been restored and is considered bulwark against international misfortune."

At a moment of crisis on the Europe, he said, a most distinguished European statesman came to him and said, "you could not have had the influence you have had in these days except in the power of your detachment. Detachment renders your nation and your people fearless, direct, helpful, and ready to speak with candor. Keep out of the tangle so that you can help us. You owe it to the world."

POLICE HUNT GANG IN TRACY MURDER

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—A gang of rowdies, known as the "Kenwood Gang" was being sought by police today in their attempt to solve the mysterious slaying of Freeman Tracy, electrician, found in the street early Sunday with a bullet in his brain. Acting on the belief that Tracy went to the club after leaving the car of a friend shortly after midnight and getting the report from a woman living under the club rooms that this group frequently broke into the club, police turned from their search of fraternity houses in the district to attempt to run down members of the gang. Questioning students in the neighboring fraternity houses was done in the hope that some of the students had been close to the spot where Tracy's body was found and might have witnessed the murder or a struggle which is believed preceded the killing of Tracy.

Elmer Peddy, a taxi-driver, said he saw a gang of six or seven leading a man who seemed to have been wounded as he was going home about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Tracy's body was found about an hour later. The gang was in the neighborhood of the spot where the man was found, Peddy said and he could see blood on the wounded man's shirt.

ROADS CLAIM COUNTRY IN BETTER CONDITION

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—Arguments by the Western Railroad designed to show that a reduction in grain rates would not materially aid the farmers, and the announcement by President Charles Donnelly of the Northern Pacific of a $57,000,000 improvement program for the next three years featured the interstate commerce commission grain rate hearing here today.

L. E. Wetting, statistician for the Western Lines occupied the stand all afternoon, submitting voluminous tables and figures to support the claim that the economic condition of the western territory including North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Montana, is at present better than at any time during the last two years.

ILLINOIS IS BECOMING COMMERCIAL FRUIT LEADER

Centerville, Ill., Nov. 27.—(AP)—"Illinois is fast becoming the leader in commercial fruit production sections of the country," declared A. B. Leeper, president of the Southern Illinois Fruit Exchange of Centerville, in speaking at the convention of the Southern Illinois Horticultural Society. The convention was closed this evening.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Nov. 27.—T. H. Oaks, 75, of Waukegan, last of Lake county's stage coach drivers, was buried today.

New Senators Attack Industries and Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Two new senators from Northwestern states delivered addresses to night in New York. One, Henrik Shipstead, Farmer-Labor, Minnesota, attacked the modern "industrial king" as a war making despot while the other, Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, asserted that the channels of publicity in America have been commercialized. Both spoke at a dinner given in honor of Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of The Nation.

Senator Shipstead said there is a growing suspicion of parliamentary governments all over the world.

"Parliamentary governments came to life and power, succeeding military and political despotism," he said, "because these had dispossessed the producers of wealth and rewarded the destroyers of wealth, the war makers. After destroying the old-fashioned political and military despot."

We have substituted for these a new despot, the industrial king. This new king is also a war maker, sacrificing the producer and builder in order to reward the destroyer.

"The militarism that had been a source of danger and war has now become a source of safety and peace and must therefore be preserved. One is as immoral as the other—the invasion of the Ruhr is as immoral as the invasion of Belgium. Why are we so shocked at the one and so indifferent at the other?"

"Industrial kings sacrifice nations and governments on the poker table of international politics when iron mines, coal mines, oil wells, land and trade are the stakes. This game is destroying the white man's civilization."

Senator Wheeler told his audience that in both the United States and in Europe public opinion is largely "a manufactured article the output of propaganda factories."

GERMANY STILL SEEKS SOMEONE WILLING TO ACCEPT APPOINTMENT

Stegerwald Candidate Since the Refusal of Dr. Albert

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Germany was still without a chancellor or an effective government at a late hour tonight, and the five bourgeois parties, which were supposed to constitute a new coalition bloc were far from an accord which would give them a united front in the reichstag.

Adam Stegerwald, former premier of Prussia and nationalist leader is now being roomed for the chancellorship. Dr. Heinrich F. Albert having abandoned his efforts to form a ministry because of inability to find support in the reichstag. Stegerwald, however, has not yet been unqualifiedly accepted by all the parties slated for the new coalition.

The German nationalists have complicated the negotiations by demanding that they be included in the Prussian coalition government which at the present time is composed of Socialists, the Peoples' Party, Democrats and Clericals.

Since the dissolution of the federal Prussian house of lords, which was a citadel of Prussian aristocracy and semi-royalty the reactionaries have not been represented in Prussian cabinets. They are now seeking rehabilitation there by making preparation in the new government contingent on similar representation in Prussia.

ASK PRESIDENT FOR PARDON FOR CRAIG

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The citizens' union today made public a letter sent President Coolidge asking him either to pardon city comptroller Charles L. Craig or to commute his sentence of sixty days for contempt of court imposed by Federal Judge Mayer.

The letter which declared that the Citizens' Union believed that the Comptroller deserved punishment suggested that a change in procedure in regard to contempt proceedings be made so that a judge "who is defamed outside of the court room" shall not pass on the contempt charges.

"The conduct of municipal affairs must necessarily be greatly embarrassed by his extended confinement in jail," the letter said.

After attacking Mr. Craig for "wanting misrepresentation of the action of the court," the letter urged pardon or commutation to prevent Mr. Craig from breaking into jail and making political capital of the pseudo martyrdom which he has long sought.

NOTED RESIDENT OF SPRINGFIELD IS DEAD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Abbie G. Fox, wife of Major O. C. Fox, who was commissioned by the war department to arrange the route followed when the body of Abraham Lincoln was brought to Springfield, died in this city today.

After the funeral tomorrow Mrs. Fox's remains will be sent to Washington and will rest beside those of her distinguished husband in Arlington Cemetery. Major Fox has been dead 20 years.

HOLD UP MESSENGERS AND HANDCUFF POLICEMAN

Seattle, Wn., Nov. 27.—Seven heavily armed bandits held up two messengers of the Bank of California in a limousine early this evening at the corner of Second Avenue and Jackson street and escaped with a large quantity of registered mail, said to contain $20,000 worth of negotiable bonds.

The bandits handcuffed a special motorcycle policeman accompanying the messenger's car to his motorcycle.

ENGLAND WANTS INFORMATION ON TAMAKA SEIZURE

Will Protest Action if Outside Three Mile Limit

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The British government has requested of its charge d'affaires in Washington a full report on the circumstances surrounding the seizure of the British Schooner Tomaka off the New Jersey coast, and the British Schooner Island Home off the Texas coast by American officials. If the report establishes that the vessels seized are British-owned and were taken outside the three mile limit, Great Britain will formally protest their seizure on the ground that the treaty giving the right to confiscate alcohol as a fixed twelve mile limit but the American three mile limit neither has been signed nor ratified.

In the reports concerning the negotiations for the treaty the British officials appear to be interested over constant references to the twelve mile limit as though Secretary of State Hughes' proposal for an extension of the usual three mile limit already has been enacted into law.

They say they desire to make it clear that there is no such thing as a fixed twelve mile limit but under the pending agreement the American right of seizure will be limited by the general term "an hour's steaming distance from American shores."

PREDICTS HOG MARKET WILL BE MUCH HIGHER AFTER FIRST OF YEAR

Present Over Supply Will be Followed by Shortage

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Overloading of the terminal markets by unrestricted shipping of hogs will inevitably be followed by a corresponding shortage after February, Everett C. Brown, president of the National Live Stock Exchange declared here today and predicted that if farmers hold back one third of what they would have shipped hog prices will advance at least $2 in the next sixty or ninety days.

"Hog meat is the cheapest food product in America," the statement said, "the tremendous over supply of hogs in all the terminal markets during October, November and December will mean a corresponding shortage after February 1 next year. I predict that the average packing drove of hogs in Chicago will cost $2 per hundred more in February than the same kind of a drove can be bought at today, or possibly a low spot in December if the hog producers continue to ship their hogs regardless of price."

"The farmers themselves are the only ones that can correct this. If they feel that they must ship some or most of the hogs they have on hand, I strongly urge them to hold one third of what they would have shipped. If they do this I will guarantee that hogs have struck bottom for this winter and that there will be a steady advance in the next sixty to ninety days that will give us at least a $2 a 100 advance in prices."

WHOLESALE UPHELD BY SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—A wholesaler can without violating any law give notice to a manufacturer that he will discontinue dealing with him unless the manufacturer ceases selling directly to retailers in the wholesaler's territory or pays him a regular wholesaler's commission on such business.

This was clearly demonstrated today as representing the views of the supreme court in its hearing of a case brought by the federal trade commission against Raymond Brothers, a sock company of Nebraska. After counsel for the government had concluded its argument the court, which had poured upon him a flood of questions was so satisfied that the action complained of by the commission was not in violation of the law that it refused to hear counsel for Raymond Brothers—Clark company.

INDUSTRIES SHOW SLIGHT EMPLOYMENT INCREASES

Chicago, Nov. 27.—A slight increase in employment at manufacturing plants during October has offset the slight decline of the previous month, the seventh federal reserve bank announced today after a survey among 296 manufacturing concerns in the district representing an aggregate employment of 211,000 men. Increases of about one per cent in men, two per cent in total hours worked and of more than four per cent in payrolls were reported to the bank.

CUMMINS AGREES TO LEAVE QUESTION OF POSITION TO LEADERS

Progressives Are Opposed to His Holding Both Places

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Only two concrete developments regarding organization of the house and senate came out of various conferences today at the capitol.

Senator Cummins of Iowa, agreed to leave to Republican leaders decision as to whether he shall retain both or either of his present places as president pro tem of the senate and chairman of the interstate commerce commission.

House Progressives appointed a committee to confer with Republican leaders on matters regarding modification of house rules and committee assignments. It was indicated, however that this committee would not take the initiative in any possible negotiations.

Senator Cummins' decision upset expectations of the majority leaders that he would voluntarily give up the place of president pro tem and retain the committee chairmanship.

Under the resolution of the senate which accompanied his election, the Iowa senator holds the office of president pro tem at the pleasure of the senate. Some parliamentarians contend that since the senate is a continuing body re-election of the president pro tem is not necessary. They point to several precedents to support their argument.

Senate Progressives are opposed to Senator Cummins holding both of his present places, but they have not yet formally discussed among themselves a possible course of action as a result of the decision of the Iowa senator. They have told him that they would support him for the office of president pro tem, but this was conditioned some of the Progressives say on his relinquishing his committee chairmanship. Whether they will make a fight against his reappointment as chairman remains to be developed.

House and senate organization was discussed with President Coolidge by Senator Lodge early today.

DRAINAGE DISTRICTS FIGHT DEEP WATERWAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 27.—Representatives of thirteen districts of the Association of Drainage & Levee Districts of Illinois today at Beardstown gave their views on a deepwaterway project to the United States senate investigating committee headed by Senator Medill McCormack.

Dr. J. P. Kerr and former Congressman Guy L. Shaw, Beardstown, acted as spokesmen for the Beardstown drainage representatives.

"We do not want the Illinois here deepened or widened, if that means there will be an increased flow, unless the sanitary district of Chicago will repay the damage from previous inflows, repay the damage caused by future inflows, and will lessen the pollution from Chicago sewage," former Congressman Shaw told the committee.

A number of land owners along the Illinois river near Beardstown also spoke. Their sentiment was the same as expressed by former Congressman Shaw.

DISCOVERS SERUM TO TEST MEN'S VERACITY

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 27.—Methods of testing a man's veracity thru the administration of scopolamin were declared by several prominent local physicians to be "an important contribution to medical science" after a demonstration here today by Dr. R. E. House of Ferris, Texas, with five prisoners held at the parish prison on various charges, as subjects.

The test of the "truth serum" declared by Dr. House to be a drug given by obstetricians to produce "twilight sleep" was administered in the presence of officers of the Orleans Parish Medical Society, health and police officials, and newspaper men. Dr. House in explaining the use of scopolamin said that if it was properly administered a man could not lie, as he could not summon enough inventiveness to lie as lies require more thought and energy than telling the truth.

RADICAL STYLES IN WOMEN'S SHOES

CVLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 27.—If mildly adopts the recommendations of the styles committee of the National Shoe Retailers association and the National Boot & Shoe Manufacturers for retail selling she will have her feet shod with allegator and lizard hide—genuine and imitation—between January 1st and Easter.

While the cost of these hides prohibits the making of many shoes from them, E. H. Aymer, declared they will be used extensively for trimmings.

For general wear men will wear huz-l and lighter shades. An increasing demand for lighter shades is expected.

THREE DROWNED NEAR BATH WHEN BOAT GOES DOWN

One Escapes, While Hunting Clothes Carry Others Under

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 27.—J. P. Croak, plumbing contractor of Hammond, Ind., and Earl House and John M. Butler of Bath, were drowned at 6 o'clock this evening in the Illinois river near Bath while duck hunting, when their launch capsized. Leo Knoezer, an automobile dealer of Hammond, a fourth member of the party, escaped by swimming to shore, but was suffering from exposure at a hotel in Bath tonight. None of the bodies of the drowned men have been recovered.

Knoezer and Croak had driven to Bath this morning in their automobile for a duck hunt along the Illinois river. They were joined at Bath by House and Butler. The four made a voyage to a gun club preserve ten miles south of Bath. When the launch reached a point in the river opposite the club house near Grand Island, owned by wealthy Chicago citizens, the boat sprang a leak and started to sink. Knoezer threw off his hunting coat, leaped from the boat and swam to shore. The others were carried down by the weight of their hunting clothes.

BODY OF LONG LOST GIRL IS FOUND NEAR LOUISVILLE IN RIVER

Daughter of Judge Missing from Home Since November

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 27.—Marguerite Dearth, 22 years old, whose mysterious disappearance from her home in Muncie, Ind., Nov. 1, was followed by a nationwide search instituted by her father, Judge Clarence W. Dearth, was found here today, the body floating face downward in the Ohio River in the heart of the city.

Officials said they were at a loss at present to ascertain the manner in which death was caused and would not venture an opinion whether it was by suicide, foul play, or accident. Across the forehead is a jagged wound and police said a close examination disclosed a fracture of the skull.

Disappeared Nov. 1.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 27.—Miss Marguerite Dearth, 22, whose body was recovered from the Ohio river at Louisville, Ky., today by Louisville police officers, disappeared from the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Clarence W. Dearth in this city on Thursday, November 1. The disappearance was not made public until the Sunday following the young woman's departure and since then a nationwide search has been conducted with the assistance of welfare organizations and police and railroad officials.

Despondency is thought to have caused Miss Dearth to leave home. She had been on the verge of a nervous collapse for some time.

The last of the concrete for the West State street pavement was laid yesterday. This makes certain that the pavement can be completed at an early date, for no matter how severe the weather, the asphalt can be spread upon the concrete base. When the Standard Paving Company undertakes a contract the custom is to finish it within the required time.

A verdict of guilty was rendered in the Stall murder case in record time yesterday in the Morgan county circuit court. The entire trial was completed in the period from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. If justice could be meted out this speedily as a general rule there would be fewer cases on the criminal docket. It is the delays in court procedure that often bring criticism.

A petition recently presented to the city council for the revision of the existing liquor ordinance is to have thorough consideration before action is taken. The proposed change would make the ordinance less stringent and provide for the filling of physicians' liquor prescriptions thru drug stores. The effect would certainly be to increase the consumption of liquor and to make some provisions of the prohibition law more difficult of enforcement. Why not let the city ordinance stand as now written on the statute books?

CONSTRUCTIVE RESULTS.

In its three years of administration the Federal Power Commission has received applications for permits involving 21,500,000 horse power, and issued permits and licenses for an aggregate installation of 7,500,000 horsepower, under which 2,400,000 horsepower are built or building. The Commission asserts that in those three years it has dealt with applications involving six times as much horsepower, has issued permits and licenses involving three times as much horsepower, and has twice as much horsepower built or building as the individual departments working separately in the preceding twenty years.

That is a remarkable record, practically all of which has been made since the Republicans took over control of the Government in March, 1921. It has been made possible thru the close co-operation of the Secretaries of War, Agriculture and the Interior, who form the Federal Power Commission. With great wisdom, Congress designated those officials to supervise the granting of water power permits so that the separate administration of navigable streams, of the public lands, and of national forests would not be a hindrance to or suffer therefrom. Each of those activities of the Government is affected by power sites and the reservoirs connected therewith, and by having the secretaries of the departments who handle those activities act in authority has been eliminated and the development of natural power expedited.

THEY NEED A REMINDER.

It is intimated that debtor nations that have failed to arrange for the refunding of their obligations to the United States will get a formal reminder from our State Department, at its next meeting. The reminders may or may not have the desired effect, but they will serve to emphasize more clearly the attitude which those countries are taking. The world should thoroughly understand the varying conditions of international credit which the nations adopt. Originally all the debts were on the same plane. Since they were incurred one country has made repayment in full, two others are making repayments in installments over a period of years, a few others have announced their intention of entering a similar installment agreement, others have bluntly asserted that repayment would not be made until the German reparations bill is paid, while still others have ignored their American obligations entirely. If the forthcoming reminders are unproductive of results, it will be appropriate to consider what other steps may be taken to collect the American taxpayers' money.

Our tariff schedules offer an opportunity, through varying duties on imports, to give practical expression to our attitude toward those nations, according to the different treatment they have accorded us. Their ships entering our ports, their emigrants seeking new homes in this country, and the applications of their citizens for loans in the United States which are first passed upon by our State Department, all furnish us the means for responding to the other nations of the world in precisely the same spirit that they treat Americans.

MORE TOWNSHIP SETTLEMENTS

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)

Member Illinois Historical Society

In The Journal of June 6th, 1923, appeared some "Township Settlements" and this article is an extension of that compilation—the original having been made in 1872, in an Atlas Map (with illustrations) of the county.

Township 14, Range 10, West

The first settlers were the Holmes (1826) Shepherds (1827) McAllisters and Stevensons about the fall of 1828. The first birth was a son of Mr. Shepherd, in the Spring of 1828. The first location was along the creeks and by the timber, and on this account for many years the prairie remained unclaimed. About a year after the Deep Snow immigration flowed in, and in a few years most of the rich prairies were occupied by new comers. In the early history of this township must be noted that Rev. Peter Cartwright was accustomed to preach either from the stump of some aged oak or the cabin of some pioneer planter. Methodist, Rev. James Rives also preached occasionally in the log school houses. This township is well watered and the prairies interspersed with groves of timber, making this portion of the county unsurpassed for general agricultural purposes.

Township 14, North, Range 11 West

This township was first settled by Dr. Cadwell in the Spring of 1820, where he made an improvement about one mile south of what is now known as Allison's Mound; and the first court of Morgan county was held in that locality. Other early settlers were A. M. Liebe, William Gordon, William Coulter, after which settlers flocked in quite rapidly. The first marriage was that of Charles Harrell to Miss L. Cadwell; and Elizabeth York was the first child born. The first death was the wife of Charles Harrell. The first church was built in the village of Lynville, in 1839; anterior to that time, preaching was held at private houses and schoolhouses.

Peter Cartwright was the first regular preacher. The first schoolhouse was built in 1830. William Brisbane taught the first school, at his own home. In 1830 Adam Allison built the first mill for grinding grain (treadmill). The first saw mill was built in 1859 by William Anderson and Henry Shirliff. Edward Shirliff sold the first goods in the town of Lynville, which is now a promising little village.

Township 15 and 16, N. Range 8, West

Township 15 and Township 16 are half townships of most beautiful lands, owned in large bodies by the largest stock farmers, who are mostly residents of the adjoining townships. In these fractional townships, more than any others, is where the great Cattle Kings of America herd their immense droves, and prepare them for the markets. They are one immense pasture, owned mostly by the Straws, Alexanders, Browns, etc., whose names are known all over the country, in connection with the cattle trade.

It took 14 years to acquire them.

Samme claims, with dignity and confidence, that he is the world's greatest authority on match boxes. No doubt, in two ways, it's a striking hobby.

Man's instinct for accumulation is, in its simpler form, the quality of virtue known as thrift. Carried to extremes, to its logical conclusions, it is responsible for some people being too rich at the expense of others who remain too poor.

Many a millionaire will smile at Mr. Samme collecting match boxes or Mr. Rothschild collecting rare fleas. But the match boxes and fleas have benefited their owners about as much as excessive possession of dollars benefits the extremely rich.

A queer animal, at times, is man.

In justice to Rothschild, it must be admitted that his hobby did the world a little good, since fleas spread diseases and a knowledge of them is obviously valuable. Which is more than can be said of some collections of dollars.

STALLS IS GIVEN

Man Who Shot Frank Houston Convicted of Murder, Given 25 Years in Penitentiary—Speedy Trial Set New Record.

William Stalls, who shot and killed Frank Houston in Broadway alley the night of July 5, was found guilty in the Morgan county circuit court Tuesday afternoon. A verdict was returned by the jury after evidence had been considered for a comparatively brief time.

The penalty which Stalls must pay for his crime is twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

It was one of the briefest murder trials in the records of Morgan county. With Judge E. S. Smith presiding the selection of the jury began at 9 o'clock and within an hour the jury had been secured. The state's case was presented by State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson and the defendant was represented by D. J. Staley. The presentation evidence and argument by attorneys move along with such rapidity that the case was given to the jury shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Stalls entered a plea of self-defense but the evidence produced by the state went to show after a dispute between Stalls and Houston with reference to money lost in a game of chance, that Stalls went to his home, secured a revolver and then returned to Broadway alley where the shooting occurred. On the state Stalls insisted that he armed himself simply for the purpose of protection when he demanded his money from Houston, and said he shot only when Houston was about to attack him with a knife.

Witnesses for the state, were Chief of Police Frank Kiloran, Dr. H. C. Woltman and Henry Johnson. Several character witnesses were called by the defense to testify to the good name Stalls had prior to this happening. The defendant has been a resident of Jacksonville only about two years.

The members of the jury were Julius Kitzer, M. M. Connolly, George W. Spires, W. M. Peebles, C. J. Loneragan, L. P. Fisher, Frank Rataichak, M. L. Denny, Ray Brockhouse, John Gibbs, Leon Stewart, W. H. Franz.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT MEN IN MEETING

Drainage District Commissioners Held Important Meeting in White Hall—Other News from Greene County.

White Hall Nov. 26.—A movement to oppose increasing the flow into the Illinois river from the Chicago drainage canal was the purpose of a meeting held in White Hall Saturday afternoon, attended by about thirty representatives of the Illinois Association of Drainage District Commissioners, and held in the directors' room of the People's First National Bank. Those present included Dr. K. D. Keer of Versailles, president; W. F. Gillman of Havana secretary and Dr. Fletcher of Winchester, director. The members of the legislative committee were also present, including Guy L. Shaw of Beardstown, chairman, and G. W. Telling of Danville, Judge Eagleton and Eugene Brown of Peoria. The representation included practically every drainage district from Mercedosa to Graceton, such as McGee's Creek, Scott County, Swan, Hillview, Hartwell, Fairbanks and Nutwood.

The call for this meeting was made at a recent executive committee meeting in Beardstown, and it was decided to have other meetings at Havana on the 30th and Pekin on December 1st. A delegation will go to Washington on the convening of congress, and upon their return about the middle of December a monster meeting will be held at Beardstown to be addressed by the president of the lakes carriers' association and other notables opposed to an increase of the flow from the Chicago sanitary district until such time as the Illinois valley can secure compensation for damages from floods. Postmaster Morton of Beardstown and W. A. Hubbard of Carrollton were among those present, the latter taking quite an active part in the proceedings.

A revival of the old-time literary clubs is in prospect with the invitation extended by Justice E. L. Wendell for a meeting of those interested in his office next Friday evening. Rev. Wendell announces that he will give a talk on "Briton Before the arrival of the English" as the first of a series under the general theme of the history and development of the English speaking people of the world. White Hall and Carrollton have both in the past maintained organizations for the weekly consideration of current topics, but they have been non-functioning for the past few years. The influence of these organizations was extensive, both cities exchanging speakers and otherwise being closely allied.

Charles Long, who has charge of the blacksmith department of the White Hall Sewer Pipe and Stoneware Co., sustained a broken ankle Monday morning while working on a heavy crusher wheel.

Harve Boggess and daughter, Miss Minnie, went to Hannibal Monday to attend the funeral at 2 o'clock that afternoon of M. S. Boggess, who died Saturday morning, particulars of which are lacking. The deceased has been connected with a hotel there since 1916, and has been doing well. He resided in White Hall until going to Hannibal, and was associated with his father, the late J. S. Boggess, in the transfer business, the father dying in 1914. His wife survives, and besides Harvey there is a brother, William, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Allen, both of whom reside in California. His age was 57 years.

Dr. and Mrs. F. N. McLaren visited the Illinois soldiers' orphans home at Normal Monday, and brought home a five-year-old girl for adoption.

EXPLOSION CAUSED BY GAS IGNITION

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Nov. 27.—(A. P.)—The special commission appointed by the state department of mines and minerals to investigate the cause of the explosion at Mine No. 1 of the Chicago, Wilmington & Franklin Coal company near Orient, four miles from here returned to Springfield this afternoon after completing the investigation of the explosion, in which two men were killed and thirteen injured. The committee spent most of its time inspecting the underground workings of the mine. Members of the commission declined to make any statement as the result of their investigation, but it was said that the investigation had revealed that a gas pocket had been ignited by a lamp carried by one of the two victims of the explosion.

The mine, in which about 1100 men were working at the time of the explosion, was said not to have been badly damaged. Repairs were reported to have been completed today and operation of the mine was to be resumed tomorrow.

The Morgan County Tuberculosis board met recently for organization. A. A. Curry was chosen president, W. R. Turnbull treasurer and Dr. R. V. Brokaw secretary. As already indicated, the purpose of the county board in appointing Dr. Brokaw on the tuberculosis board is to correlate the tuberculosis work with the public health program.

It is understood to be the wish of the tuberculosis board to develop comprehensive clinic service in connection with the sanatorium.

TWO VOTES MAY SEAT COLORED SENATOR IF COURT UPHOLDS WRIT

Claims Name Written on Couple of Ballots by Friends

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Two votes may seat William G. Anderson, Chicago negro attorney in the Illinois State Senate, if his petition for a writ of mandamus which he declared today he will file tomorrow against the board of election commissioners is successful. Anderson seeking to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Samuel Eitelson, former Senator for the second district declared the board is required legally to issue him a certificate of election. His stand is that the vacancy should have been filled at the November 6th election. This was not done and two of Anderson's friends wrote his name in the ballot for that office. This, Anderson declares, entitles him to the seat.

If the court upholds him in this stand, he will be the first member of his race to sit in the upper chamber of the Illinois general assembly.

TWO FIRES YESTERDAY

Firemen were called at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning to the residence at 841 North Church street owned by Phillip Jacobie. Sparks from the chimney had set fire to the roof, which was considerably damaged before the flames were extinguished.

At 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon the department made a run to the blacksmith shop of James Seaver on East North street, where fire originating from a defective stovepipe, had caught in the roof. The flames were extinguished with but slight damage to the building.

OKLA. SENATE PASSES ANTI KLAN MEASURE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 27.—(AP)—Sections of the proposed anti-Ku Klux Klan bill which would prohibit the wearing of masks, trespassing while disguised, assault while disguised and the sending of anonymous communications were approved by the upper house of the state legislature today marking the first victory for its supporters over the measure.

Proponents of a similar act in the lower house, however, were defeated in their fight for immediate consideration when the house voted to put aside the measure until the senate finally has assented.

Senator Harry O. Glasser of Enid, who led the unsuccessful fight for a provision to reveal the membership lists of secret organizations surprised his colleagues today by declaring that he was convinced it will be impossible to pass adequate anti-klan legislation without compelling certain members "to abandon what they believe the principle involved in the matter." He added that he soon will propose that both factions draft substitutes to the bill under consideration each to be submitted to the people in a special election.

"COLD"

The common "cold" is recognized as a menace, by Uncle Sam's Public Health Service, which starts studying "colds" on a big scale. The goal, of course, is to stamp out eventually these annoying and dangerous epidemics.

It's a relief and pleasure to read about such common-sense action, after so much medical vaudeville about monkey glands and son on. Situation to date was approximately summed up by the country doctor who satirically said: "It takes three weeks to cure a cold with medicine and 21 days without."

VOTERS

New York state finds its elections cost an average of $1.18 for each vote cast. One city holds the figure to 34 cents. Another runs as high as $1.55.

Even this highest figure would be cheap, if votes were cast intelligently—which they rarely are.

Monarchies are ruled by kings democracies by sillibility.

BANANAS

That popular song about bananas greatly stimulated the sale of that particular fruit, according to the Wall Street Journal. This was the case in our country. And appetite for bananas is increasing also in England as the song gains popularity over there.

Mighty is the power of suggestion. Mightier is the power of repetition.

A significant tip for advertisers.

CHINESE

Eggs—five million dollars worth—arrive in New York harbor in a single shipment from China. Some are frozen, the rest dried. Being shipped in bulk—out of the shell—they reach consumers only in the form of prepared foods.

For our peace of mind, it's just as well that we don't know the history of the majority of things we eat in civilization.

BIRDS

The eyesight of birds is over 100 times as powerful as human sight. And birds are blind compared with salmon.

Birds also have phenomenal hearing. Pheasants in England during the war became alarmed by vibrations from explosions 300 miles away.

In the primitive state, man probably had his five senses many times keener than today. Physically we become dulled as spiritually we grow more sensitive.

INK

A publisher tells us that 200,000 different new books come from the world's presses each year. He figures that nearly nine million books were published in the last century.

Out of the 200,000, how many are really worth reading? One hundred might be a low estimate but certainly not more than that many will survive by the year 2000, other than as relics.

Writing, except as a carrier of thought, perishes quickly.

OBITUARY

Eva Belle Hamilton daughter of J. R. and Mollie Hamilton was born near Winchester, Ill., July 11 1879, and departed this life November 23rd 1923, aged 44 years and 12 days at her home near Manchester. On September 4th, 1900 she was united in marriage to Wm. Dean, son of Arthur and Amelia Dean. To this union were born 2 children, Lois May and Eugene, who with their father are left to mourn the departure of a loving wife and devoted mother. Two brothers and one sister, James T. and Otis Hamilton and Miss Emma Hamilton all of Winchester, Ill., with a host of friends are left to mourn her departure. But they mourn not as those who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again. Even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

She had been a great sufferer but without murmur or complaint she patiently bore her affliction with a smile at all times. All that medical skill or loving hands could do was done at all times thru her illness, but the end came quickly and peacefully on Friday evening Nov. 23rd, 1923 at 7:30 surrounded by family and friends. To know her was to love her beautiful Christian character at all times.

In the year 1904 in a meeting held by Rev. N. M. Antrobus she made a confession of faith in Christ as her personal Saviour, and was baptized under the fellowship of the West Union Baptist church and remained faithful to the end.

We weep for her no tenderer wife E're made man's fireside bright. No more devoted mother's care E're kept home altars fire alight And she is with the Angel host With sinless heart and sinless hand Waiting to meet the friends to come To the bright and happy land.

ILLINI LODGE HAS TEN NEW MEMBERS

Large Number Present to Witness
Work of Initiatory Degree
Tuesday Night—Other Activities Planned.

Illini Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., held its regular meeting Tuesday evening with a large attendance. Enthusiasm for the work of the coming season was in evidence, and the work of the evening was a sample of what may be expected during the winter in the lodge.

Showing the results of the past few months of a booster campaign a class of ten was given the initiatory degree before a large and enthusiastic gathering of members and visitors. This is the beginning of the winter's work, with more candidates to be given the work in the near future, for Illini lodge is awake and working. The boosters extend an invitation to all to come up, hear the new piano and catch the spirit of these meetings, for they will be beneficial.

The new revision of the by-laws was read and they are now ready to be sent to the judiciary and appeals committee of the grand lodge for their approval, after which they will be in force. The committee is almost ready to submit plans for a special meeting for members and their families, at which a musical program will be carried out, and at which time there will be held on Friday evening, Dec. 7. Talented musicians will present a varied and enthusiastic musical program followed by a social time with refreshments.

At the close of the meeting evening came a social hour and refreshments served in the banquet room. The refreshments were in charge of D. A. Shadid, Walter Brown and Earl Gruber.

CITY PLAN PROJECT IS GIVEN BOOST

Prof. Holden Defined Community Spirit at Gathering of Citizens—Financing of City Plan Project is Well Begun

It was definitely decided that Jacksonville shall have a city plan at a supper given at Grace church Tuesday night, attended by more than 250 Jacksonville people. The decision came when the assembly approved the suggestion of the Jacksonville plan commission that a fund of $5,000 be raised to meet necessary expenditures, and almost half that amount was quickly subscribed.

Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, who is president of the commission, introduced Mayor E. E. Crabtree as presiding chairman. The principal address was by Prof. Holden of the educational department of the International Harvester Co. Prof. Holden, who has a wonderful record for giving aid in community enterprises and other co-operative work, made a very inspiring talk on community spirit. A musical program was given by the Elite Six orchestra.

An explanation of what the city plan will mean to Jacksonville and the workings of the commission was made by Chairman Rammelkamp. Then brief informal talks were given by several citizens, commending the project. This group included H. M. Capps, Mrs. J. H. Denkin, H. J. Rodgers, Rev. G. E. Stickney, B. F. Shafer and C. H. Story.

Subscriptions to the fund needed were made in amounts ranging from $100 down. It was clear that further subscriptions are needed and it is hoped that there will be such voluntary generous response to the project that no private solicitation will be necessary.

More Subscriptions Needed
The chairman announced that any person who is willing to make a subscription is asked to telephone to Dr. Rammelkamp, to Secretary Welch at the chamber of commerce, or to leave the subscription at any one of the Jacksonville banks.

It was explained that the survey of Jacksonville which will be made by a firm of experts will occupy several months' time at a cost of $3,600. The other money now sought will be used for the publication of the reports of the experts and for some other forms of publicity in connection with the plan outlined.

It is the intention to publish the list of subscriptions received tomorrow.

After an excellent supper had been served by the ladies of the Grace church, Dr. Rammelkamp made a brief explanation of the city plan movement, stating that 300 cities have already organized plan commissions. He then introduced Mayor E. E. Crabtree as chairman.

Mr. Crabtree said that his first knowledge of the city plan commission movement came thru the Municipal League, an organization fostered by the University of Illinois in its endeavor to help along the forward movement in the cities of the state.

Prof. Holden, who made the principal address, was for a number of years manager of the Funk farm comprising 25,000 acres in McClean county. Subsequently he was in agricultural work at Iowa university and in the University of Illinois and several years past has been director of the agricultural department of the International Harvester Co.

In beginning his address Prof. Holden made reference to the pleasure he felt in the presence of Mrs. H. F. Carriel, who he said had as trustee of the University of Illinois wielded a great influence upon the educational life of the state. He said further that Prof. Turner, father of Mrs. Carriel, belonged to the credit of having done more for agricultural education than any other man in the state.

By the aid of charts Prof. Holden emphasized such sentiments as "What a man does for himself dies with him; what he does for the community lives long after he is gone." "The community is made of men not wealth, houses and factories."

The Our Town Spirit
"It isn't your or my town," the speaker said. "It must be our town if we are to develop the best spirit. There is no sense in building cities in the dense way that has been customary and the present movement is to spread over more area. Allowing an acre lot for every home will result in better and more healthy living conditions and stronger character. From a given point within a radius of ten miles you can place a million people with an acre for each home. Nothing more stabilizing could happen to the U. S. than the securing of a home for every American, for today 56 percent of the people are tenants."

"One factor which added greatly to the fighting spirit of France was the fact that 93 percent of the people there own their own homes, and following the subject further, we find that the Russian forces were shattered soon because there 93 per cent of the people do not own homes."

"In studying the city plan work and judging the experiences other cities, you will see that a city cannot grow intelligently without a plan. You will be wise to get a man from outside to help in this work. First you must sell Jacksonville to itself and the ideal condition will be reached when every citizen looks upon the city with something of the same pride and affection that he feels for his home."

"In one city thousands of residents made a pledge to give one hour a day to community work. That principle, followed out consistently, will result in wonderful accomplishments. Plan, direct, lead, protect, co-ordination, co-operation, these are the words that should be in force in every community, and the chamber of commerce should be the center of all these resulting efforts for community upbuilding."

Co-Operation Defined
"Some months ago when police were not on guard a thief on Michigan avenue in Chicago filled a small sack with sand and broke a store window and made away with valuable furs. He might have stood there for hours and days throwing hands full of sand at the window glass but it never would have been shattered. A peck of sand did the work. That is co-ordination."

"And remember while you are planning good things for your city in a co-operative way to conduct yourself so that others can work with you—that is co-operation."

Prof. Holden is thoroly imbued with the community spirit idea and one cannot listen to one of his addresses without having some desire to join in community effort.

CHAPIN WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS MET TUESDAY

FEMALE COLD CHECK ARTIST IS ARRESTED

Woman Who Swindled Local Merchants is Forced to Make Checks Good and Ordered to Leave City.

A female cold check artist, who calls herself Gray Williams, colored, has been operating in the city for some time, and was yesterday taken in custody by local police. She was arrested on complaint of four merchants, who held worthless checks in her name aggregating nearly $35.

Last night after considerable trouble and work on the part of the police, the checks were made good, and the woman was released with orders from Chief Kiloran to leave the city by Saturday. She is a stranger among the colored population here, and has been working a clever game among local merchants.

The woman had a habit of making a purchase, giving a check, and the next day coming into the store and saying she had no money in the bank. She would then make a small payment on the check, saying that she would come in at a certain time and settle the account. When the time set had expired, she failed to appear and the merchants called on the police to help them collect their money.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO HAVE SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

The opening session of a school of instruction for Knights Templar of the Sixth District of Illinois will be held at 9 o'clock this morning at the Masonic Temple on West State street. There will be both afternoon and evening sessions and dinner will be served the visitors. The purpose of the school is to instruct officers of subordinate lodges in regard to the work and thus co-ordinate the work of the various lodges in the state.

TO DISTRIBUTE FOOD AMONG NEEDY TODAY

About fifty Thanksgiving baskets are to be distributed today by the Social Service league among needy families of Jacksonville. For some time past Miss Eva Viers, the superintendent of the league, has been making arrangements for the Thanksgiving season and the response to the appeal for aid has been most liberal.

For several years past the league has had charge of the distribution of baskets of food among the poor on Thanksgiving and no needy family about which the league has knowledge is forgotten.

The students and faculty of Illinois Woman's college have donated eighteen baskets and the Y. W. C. A. of Illinois college will also contribute a number of well filled baskets. Numerous individuals have aided the league in this good work and others who are willing to donate are asked to call the league this morning. Phone No. 29.

EVANGELIST TO HAVE INTERESTING THEME

Dr. H. H. Peters to Discuss
"Commonest Thing in Jacksonville" at Central Christian Church Tonight.

At Central Christian church tonight Dr. H. H. Peters will have as his theme "The Commonest Thing in Jacksonville." Professor Hackleman will present an art study entitled "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," and will sing a solo, "The Three Calls of the Spirit." A number of persons will be baptized this evening.

At the service last night Dr. Pontius made announcement concerning the services next Sunday, mentioning in a special manner the basket dinner which will be served at the noon hour, and the great fellowship service from 2 to 3 in the afternoon.

"How a Politician Got Religion"—This was the title of a chapter study by Dr. Peters last night. He called attention to the purpose of the Books of Acts and explained that there are a dozen or more illustrations of how persons in the first century became Christians. After the introductory remarks, special attention was called to the 8th Chapter.

"In this chapter we have a portion of the story of the work of Phillip, a Deacon-Evangelist of the Jerusalem church. When the persecution arose against the Jerusalem Church, Samaria was one of the first places Phillip visited. This shows that Christianity paid no attention to the selfish partizanism of that day. The Revival was a great success. "In the midst of his campaign Phillip was told to take a journey. This led him to a way over which a statesman from Ethiopia was travelling. This man had been to Jerusalem to worship and was actually reading the Bible on the way home. In this respect he was different from other politicians, but his example could be followed with profit by all.

"This man was converted just like any other man who finds Christ. A great joy filled his heart. He returned to his home a wiser and better man. The 8th Chapter of Acts would be a good campaign document. I especially recommend it to both political parties. If all of our politicians seeking office should get religion we wouldn't have to worry so much about the results of the election."

Professor Hackleman gave a very interesting art study on "The Wise Fool" which illustrated certain phases of the evening sermon. The ordinance of Christian Baptism was celebrated at the close of the service.

Ralph Conlee Foster, who has been a patient at Passavant hospital suffering from double pneumonia, is now improving steadily.

BASEBALL LEAGUE IS FARM BUREAU'S PLAN

Four Counties Represented at Duck Dinner in Virginia Farm League for Coming Season.

Plans for the organization of an inter-county Farm Bureau baseball league were laid last night at a duck dinner held at the M. E. church in Virginia. Representatives of the farm bureaus of Sangamon, Cass, Macoupin and Morgan counties were present. Those who attended from this county were G. B. Kendall, C. S. Black and F. H. Jewsbury. Members of the Cass county bureau baseball team were also present. It was decided to form a league consisting of one team from each of the four counties. Two ministers were present, and after thorough discussion it was decided to play the games on week days, a half holiday being allowed for the purpose.

The league will be organized in time for the 1924 baseball season. A committee was appointed to work out the details, consisting of J. C. Madden of Sangamon county, Frank Kilne of Cass county, E. W. Russell of Macoupin county and E. L. Corbin of the I. A. A.

The dinner last night was largely attended, duck was plentiful and well cooked, and all other eatables were in proportion.

Mrs. Lou Nolan arrived yesterday from Los Angeles, Calif., for a visit with her brother, Capt. F. C. Taylor of 852 East State street. This is Mrs. Nolan's first visit in a number of years and she is anticipating a very pleasant stay.

Thanksgiving Day

(A small city boy's version of Thanksgiving, as related to his pals.)

About the best time, ever I had

Was last year, when I went with

Mother and Dad

Out of this old town, a long, long way,

To my Grandma's house, on

Thanksgiving Day.

My Grandma lives way out on a farm

We wanted to tart early so we set the alarm.

So it would go off at half past three

And we got up then, Dad and

Mother and me.

Jelly fixed some hot coffee and mother fixed bread,

But she didn't take time to make up the bed

Cause we wanted to catch the very first car

For my Grandma's house is awful far.

When we got on the train it was so slow.

An we sure had a long way to go.

An Dad kept saying, have more patience son

This train is making a very good

run.

The train was only a little late

We finely got, 'bout half past eight.

I run down the isle, and got off

in a hurry

And there was Grandma to meet us in his old surry.

When Grandma saw me he said,

"Here's my Man."

Climb in that front seat as quick

as you can

And Oh, Boy—sure as you're alive,

Grandpa gave me the lines and let me drive

Yes, sure, I drove every step of the way.

I never will forget that day.

When we got there Grandma was down at the gate

An she said "Surely the train was late."

Then she kissed me and said:

"You're hungry dear?"

Well the cookey jar is right in here,

I made them every one for you,

And here's a nice red apple too.

Then into the door came my uncle

Jim

Saying, "Where's the boy I'm looking for him

Why give the little chap something to eat

Get that molasses candy, he likes things sweet.

Then Uncle Jim and me, went down to the barn

My, but lots of things grow on my

Grandpa's farm

Pigs and ducks and a one eyed calf.

An a lot more things, I can't member half.

Then Uncle Jim, he showed me

how

An I really and truly milked a cow

Then he put me up on Dandy and

let me ride

By my self. He just walked along by my side.

Then Grandma called from the kitchen door,

An said, you'd better not ride any more

Cause the turkey's ready to be carved,

And I know that precious child is starved.

Then we all followed Grandma

where she led

To the dining table, with Grandpa

at the head

And after he'd solemnly asked the blessing,

He carved the turkey and passed

the dressing

An oysters and taters and lots of

cranberries

And peach pickles and some they made out of cherries.

An the bestus mince and pumpkin pie.

An the biggest cake, Oh, 'bout a foot high.

The folks sat and talked about the 'Govner man

An the strike an some kind of a clan.

But me and Uncle Jim 'scused

ourselves and let the table

An went down in the pasture back of Grandpa's stable.

He had a rifle and I had my air gun.

We didn't care if we didn't shoot

none

We scared 'em—an my how they'd

run.

We came back thru the orchard

at the old garden gate

There was Grandma. She said

James it's getting late—

I was just coming out to call

Come in Bobby and get a popcorn ball.

Just eat all you want, dear, there's plenty more.

An I kept eatin' till I eatied four.

Then after that I wanted a drink

but

Cou,un't see no faucet, an what do you think,

Uncle Jim let a bucket away in the ground and drewed water up.

An we dranked out of the nicest

old rusty cup.

Uncle Jim said where's the hammer, who can tell,

Grandma found it an we cracked walnuts on a rock by the well.

Then Grandma said James, I guess

you had better hurry,

An hook the old team up to the surry.

Cause it's getting nearly time for the train to go

An the old team is pretty slow.

Grandma said, fore you start I

The Greatest Force

The greatest force in the world is the will to serve. When it is born of enthusiasm it is dynamic in its intensity. When it emanates from a sense of duty it endures. It is the will to serve that puts imagination into business. It is the will to serve, persisted in over a long period of years, that has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) one of America's outstanding successes. It is this same will to serve that has encouraged this Company to foster industrial handiwork not alone in its own business but elsewhere. If the management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) had been content to take from crude petroleum, gasoline, kerosene and lubricating oils only, this Company would have been a large manufacturing concern, but it never could have achieved its present position as an institution in the industrial world. Without disturbing those three essential major products, this Company set about utilizing waste. It retrieved products of great benefit to the medical profession—products that lighten the burden of the housewife—products that make night travel safe—products that make good roads—and products that serve mankind in a score of ways. All these products were developed by the will to serve. The personnel of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is obsessed with the will to serve and led by men with imagination—imagination reduced to terms of practical business. It is the will to serve that inspired the Manufacturing Department of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to develop methods for increasing the yield of gasoline from a given quantity of crude petroleum. It is the will to serve that caused the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to lease to competitive concerns the right to use such important manufacturing processes. It is the will to serve that caused the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to create and maintain facilities so comprehensive as to serve a five-gallon customer as carefully, as accurately, and as promptly as it serves a thousand-gallon buyer. It is the will to serve, expressed in terms of action, that has earned for the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) the confidence, respect and esteem of the thirty million people of the Middle West.

The Nut Cracker by Joe Williams

Speaking of the Big Three, Yale seems to be all three this year. Prize fighters use brine to harden their hands. How politicians' heads get that way is unknown. Apparently the Yale bulldog has quit running around with pomeranians and is back on a diet of red meat. Zev beat in Memoriam by a nose. Showing what can be done with a nose that has been raised properly and given the advantage of a broad-minded, liberal, democratic training. Wonders never come singly. Yale goes in for modern football and Bryan refuses to be interviewed. Thanksgiving is to remind you of the many things you could be thankful for if you had them. Paris refuses to recognize Mike McGue. It may be hard for anybody to recognize him if he ever meets Gibbons. Chorus girls demand more clothes. We've yet to meet out that wasn't hungry or something. Who are the greatest ends in the country. Well, Lew Dockstader and Neil O'Brien used to be. Ice horse-racing may be a novelty to some folks, but not to bettors who are used to freeze-outs. Carpenter thinks he made a mistake in carrying the fight to Dempsey. It probably would have been better if he had carried it to some less ferocious person, at that. The crown prince carried two tennis racquets when he went back home. Showing that he is ready for any emergency. The "sure cure," cough drops at Merrigan's.

TIGERS WILL HAVE REAL BATTLE WITH KANSAS

Tomorrows Game On School for Deaf Ground Will Be Hard Fought. The football game Thanksgiving afternoon between The Illinois School for the Deaf and the Kansas School for the Deaf promises to be one of the hardest fought games seen in Jacksonville for some time. The Kansas team will arrive in Jacksonville on the Chicago and Alton railroad Thursday morning at 6:25 accompanied by a large number of rooters. The Alton is running an excursion from Kansas City to Jacksonville, the fare being $8.00 for the round trip. The Kansas school has been playing football for several years. They were coached for several years by "Dummy" Taylor, well known baseball player. Coach Foltz of the Kansas school is a former Gallaudet football star. He was chosen all star end while a member of the Gallaudet team. The Kansas school also has an assistant coach, Mr. Marshall who is also a Gallaudet graduate. The Kansas school is putting up the claim that if they can defeat the local boys they will be the undisputed champions of deaf schools of America. Coach Roby Burns of the local school yesterday received the Kansas lineup, which shows that they are a heavy outfit. The lineup of the Kansas school with the weights of the men follow: Baldwin, (Capt.) Right tackle 163; R. Miller, Center, 161; Phillips, Right guard, 175; Ring, Fullback, 164; Pritner, Right end, 150; G. Miller, Quarterback, 137; Benedet, Left halfback, 151; Reynolds, Right halfback, 143; Kistler, sub guard, 153; Cline Left end, 133; Busell Left tackle, 171; Sherman, Left guard, 148; Bantam, sub back, 139; Price, sub line, 134. Coach Burns has promised something doing all the time and will have a surprise to spring on the fans between halves. Word has been received that a large delegation will come to the game from Chicago.

PATIENCE WITH SORE ARM ENABLES VANCE TO BE PITCHING STAR

NEW YORK, (A. P.)—Many are called but few are chosen. This Biblical quotation is applicable in baseball when referring to the minor leaguers taken on for trials by the major league teams. But not one in 1,000 is called, sent back and then chosen again after six years. But it is true of Arthur "Dazzy" Vance, pitching sensation of the Brooklyn club during the 1923 season who holds the National League strike-out record. Vance started his major league career with the New York Yankees, who held on to him for three years and then cast him adrift round into shape. Working out one cold, windy day to show his wares soon after joining the Yankees, suddenly there came a "catch" in his arm at the elbow. "It was like a knife blade thrust right thru the arm at this place," declared Vance. "It hurt so badly I nearly fainted." The pain vanished, but returned every time "Dazzy" put all his stuff on the ball. The Yankees sent him to St. Joseph in the Western League. He went from there to Columbus and after a few weeks' rest pitched good ball for a game or two. Then the pain came and his arm went. "X-rays showed nothing. Bone-setter Reese treated the arm in vain. Finally, Vance consulted the old family doctor at Hastings, Neb. "You have an inflamed and strained cartilage in that elbow and it is practically useless," the doctor informed Vance. "It furnished grease, or rather oil, for that hinge in your elbow. Only rest will restore it and cure it so it will function properly again." "How long?" asked Vance anxiously. "Four or five years," replied the doctor. Vance began his long game fight against great odds. He plugged along and kept the secret of his bad arm as best he could. He was transferred to Toledo, then to Memphis. After a long rest he won four games in a row. Then he sagged down again. He went to Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League in 1920. His arm began to improve. With New Orleans in 1921 the tide turned. Pitching every fifth game, Vance was the wonder of the league. The term of servitude of the Nebraska doctor was about ended and the elbow was functioning properly. Vance was obtained by Brooklyn for the 1922 season and did fairly well. In 1923 he was good from the start. Among his feats during the season were striking out 15 in a game with the Giants and pitching a one-hit contest. Vance's nickname of "Dazzy" is really a mispronunciation of "Daisy." When he was a kid he used to visit at the shack of an old plainsman near his home town. This fellow had all kinds of weapons, "chaps," spurs and saddles, of which he was very proud. "Ain't that a dazzy," he would say to Vance as he held up or designated one of the articles. He meant "daisy." Vance liked the expression so well that he began to use it in school. The boys promptly began to call him "Dazzy," and "Dazzy" it has continued to this day.

ILLINI BASKETBALL TEAM STARTS WORK

Coach Ruby Lost Only One Man Last Year by Graduation—Team Will Work Thru Thanks giving Vacation.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 27.—With football practice out of the way, Coach J. Craig Ruby held the first regular basketball practice session of the season tonight. Practice for players other than last year's varsity squad has been carried on for more than a month. Coach Ruby turned the freshman squad over to Coach Ernest Bearg, who has been busy until now with the football squad. Five of the six men awarded letters last year have reported, as well as practically all of the second string of a year ago. The regulars back are Captain G. H. Potter and W. N. Roettger, forwards; L. M. T. Stillwell, center and Roland Popken and G. C. Lipe, guards. E. N. Hellstrom, forward and captain last season, was the only man lost by graduation. Among the members of last year's scrub and freshman outfits who are seeking varsity berths are Holloper, Hansen, Walker, Plummer, Haines, Wessman and Karnes. Earl Britton and Johnny Maurer have been given a few days' respite after football practice, but are expected out by the end of the week. The squad will practice thru the Thanksgiving vacation, taking only Thursday off.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Erratic fluctuations in Davison chemical and Maxwell Motors A which closed at net loss of 6 1/2 and 8 1/2 points respectively unsettled today's stock market after an irregularly higher opening. The rather wild movements in these two issues brought about a substantial volume of profit-taking and bear selling but for the most part the declines were moderate.
Speculative interest was divided between the stock market and the cotton market, September and December cotton prices getting above 36 cents a pound the highest in nearly four years.

This advance was based on heavy buying by Liverpool and Japanese interests, more cheerful
Manchester trade news and a bullish crop estimate by a private reporting organization.

Feverish speculation was the only reason given for the excited trading in Davison Chemical which established a new top for the year at 79 1/2 soon after the opening, dropped as low as 65 1/2, and finally closed at 69. The sharp break in Maxwell A which fell from 59 1/2 to 49 1/2 was due to the reported breaking off of the negotiations for its merger with

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., R. 75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have.
